This activity was conducted by a choir from Amazing grace caring association, Chiayi County. They started with some songs, and then they performed a short stage play to enlighten juveniles on believing God. The stage play was about a man lost himself in money and he was addicted to gambling and doing drugs. When the man was desperate and felt hopeless, he met a preacher who accepted his confession kindly and forgave him. A fault confessed is half redressed, therefore, he believed in God.

We expected that every juvenile could admit his/her fault and could be determined to amend. Finally, the choir led juveniles to sing and pray together and brought everyone a wonderful ending.
