Invited lecturer Hong Jianming from the Dharma Drum Mountain

Humanities and Social Foundation to use videos and board games to try to guide young people to use course materials and activities so that they can have experiences and feelings to understand their own ideas and values. Interact with each other, practice dialogue with others, and then be able to dialogue with yourself, and have the opportunity to relax again and from the heart, adding an opportunity to create the change you want.

Only when you are impulsive can you plan, dialogue and act on how to change.
