Former drug addict Mr. Hsiao Chien-Hsu was invited to the Juvenile Guidance Center to share his life experiences with the youths. With honesty and sincerity, Mr. Hsiao recounted his painful journey through drug addiction, describing the physical and emotional damage it caused and the suffering it brought to his family. He also shared the difficult process of rehabilitation and reintegration into society after overcoming addiction. Mr. Hsiao encouraged the youths to cherish their current opportunity for change, stay away from drugs, and cultivate a positive attitude toward life. His heartfelt sharing deeply moved the audience, reminding them that “a moment with drugs can lead to a lifetime of regret,” and inspiring them to reflect on their own paths forward.
